

Hamilton Acoustic Music Club
presents

Stagecraft

Workshops

Experience the excitement of putting yourself and your music in the spotlight. If you are new to performing and want to get used to being on stage, then this is the place for you. In a cheerful atmosphere we will explore

- Preparation of work and equipment
- Item selection that suits the occasion
- Voice projection and control
- Working with microphones and amplifiers
- Introducing your items
- Using stories and jokes to connect or fill in
- Glitches and disaster recovery
- Common on-stage problems and solutions
- Use heckling to connect up with the audience
- Logging your performances and repertoire
- Mixer operation overview

Handouts will be supplied during the series, and some performances will be recorded and photographed.

The course is on every Wednesday at Biddies at 7pm, except for the first Weds of each month which is our club night. It starts on 20th or 27th October, and is run by Matthew King. The seven session series is yours for $55.
